Dear Sir I received your letter last week in regards to 1804 cent if you see fit to do so you can write to Mr. Anderson he has the fine 1804 cent can be found at Mr Grangers Cigar Store on North Charles St near Baltimore St. I can get 1.65 in Baltimore for my 108 gold Dollars you can send me a fine Copper cent 1794 One for 10c 15.² 20c 25c and I will take my pick and send to you I only want One. I had a party who thought of buying some California Gold. he has put it off till the first of July. In Regards to Washington letter that I wrote to you a bout 10 you see fit to do so you write to Mr. Henry E Garaner Some Savings Bank Lexington St. and if you get it I want a 10 Dollar Bill. I dont say that you will get it he had it some time ago. but it would be no harm to write to him you write say I spoke to you about it some time ago. In one of our Big Banks they have 300 3 Dollar Gold pieces all fine what would you be willing to pay for them and give me a commission of 10 cents on Each

3 Dollar piece. if you get the 1804 cent I want my commission. I would like to get a Catalogue on rare One Dollar gold pieces 2.50 and the 3 Dollar Gold pieces. have you such a catalogue. I have a fine 5 Pound Gold piece you can have same for 25 Dollars. have you a fine Spanish Subloon in the 1700 Hundreds. if so how much. I want a Columbian 25 cent piece how much do you want for same I have some gold Quarters, Ceter shape not charms. and I would be willing to give you One of these for a Gold Quarter with the indian head and round not Ceter shape and the year 1853 or same in regards to Eagle cent 1856 I have a fine One and I will hold it for a while. you can have a 1795 Dollar and a 1795 half Dollar for 3.50. I have a lot of stuff and I find it a easy matter to buy stuff but a hard matter to sell please

 Americans. family. and has been handed down to these children a mistake on my part it is in good condition in a frame. at Mr. Finis Pitts on North Charles St. was left there for him to sell. I spoke to him and said I must be able to sell it. so I got him to give me a copy of same with he did. I will here give you first before I speak to him in regards to the matter. and see if I can't get him to send it on to you to see. then if you can handle it you write me what you will give for same. Please send me the copy that I sent you of the letter back to me. this is of no use to you. Give my kind regards to your father wishing you well I remain yours truly friend

My dear Mr. Roberts

I am writing you because I have a very little money for that lot of stuff but my friend except it. I think it O.K. just that all day. me my Commission for the house I want to as I can't find a good one. rather to have send me check for $3.50 and call it spent.
I had the money in my hand but I will buy some stuff from you. to please allow me my Commission and I am sure I will be as I need it. I have lost the money in the fire when I have some. I will be back. I always go to your first. I like you as a friend of mine. So send me my Commission by check. $3.50 and I will pay you. send by return mail. Had back the last Bag - by mail at my expense. take the lot of the $3.50 I know you. I will be

Dear Sir your letter to hand. In regards to 10 Dollar 1799 Gold piece I would rather have a fine One and would be willing to pay a little more. would give $13.50 for a fine One. at any time you should get One let me know and I will buy it I will let you have some Gold Dollars very soon as you fig 173 I am meeting in a party who is settling up an estate who has got 40 of them and I will let you have them and any others I get. I took back the two 1856 Eagle cents to the party I got them from. Mr. Potts will write you in regards to Washington letter of this goes through do not forget my commission. in regards to Washington Cent that I Bid for at your recent sale. was this bought during Washington's life time and was it struck off at the mint? I have a very fine Big Eagle cent 1855. I would like to Bid on that 4 Dollar Gold piece you have but I would like to get some idea about what they bring on a average at sales before I Bid when were they coined. Mr. Jewmerson a friend of mine has One and I saw him yesterday. I have a fine Paul Bunyan. 2 1/2 Gold piece you can have it for 3 Dollars what I paid for it have you in stock a Fine California 20 Dollar Gold piece 1853 like the One you sold me some time ago also have you in stock a fine 1793 1794 Copper Cent Liberty Cap how much do you want for them will say good to fine. Give my kind regards to your father

Dear Sir

I have the California Abbott Gold piece 5 Dolla. Gold this you say it belongs to you or to check I put it in Bank and box it sealed you keep the coin and I will keep the 37.50 cents and call the thing square. and I got the money as to commission you keep you. commission and charge the thing is settled so far as I am concerned But you get a 1799 Dolla and a 1900 Dolla what do you want for these I will pay them Back. if you don't ask to much for same the whole trouble is I put the stuff up to sell a house. in order to get it off. If you don't get it in the money. this won't happen. a gain
